1. The 35 Infantry Regiment is permanently stationed in Silistra (Dobroudja).
   It is known as Podelenie 4140. It is made up of three battalions of about seven hundred men each. This Regiment does not have tanks. The Commanding Officer of the Regiment is a certain Lieutenant Colonel Stoichev, age about 45, a Communist.

2. The 8 Cavalry Regiment is permanently stationed in Silistra (Dobroudja).
   It is quartered in separate barracks and consists of three battalions.

3. On the outskirts of Stara Zagora there is a large motor pool depot, known as Zavod Vasil Kolarov. The workshops, garages and houses for the personnel were constructed in 1946. About six hundred people are employed there and the depot handles about seven hundred trucks, mostly of Soviet make. About one-half of the employees are apprentices who, upon termination of a two-year course, will become drivers of trucks and tractors. The director of this motor pool is a certain Ivanov, age 35, native of Plovdiv.
